Bible Background • HEBREWS 13:1–6; 1 CORINTHIANS 13 | Printed Text • HEBREWS 13:1–3; 1 CORINTHIANS 13 | Devotional Reading • JOHN 13:31–35

Aim for Change

By the end of the lesson, we will: DEFINE Christian love and discuss its implications; REFLECT on the ways we experience Christian love in our lives; and PRACTICE love as it is rooted in our faith in Christ.

In Focus

Joyce was president of the church's Usher Board. She was always on time, dressed impeccably in the standard black and white uniform with white gloves, and knew all of the hand signals. Whenever Joyce was on duty, the members had their envelopes and fans before they requested them; she would immediately move forward when she heard crying babies—firmly removing them from their parents' arms and delivering them to the nursery so the services could proceed quietly.

As she moved about the sanctuary this morning, Joyce was clearly irritated. She had met with the pastor on Saturday afternoon, and he had been critical of her work. The pastor had complimented Joyce on her faithfulness and dedication. He had even praised her as one of his most reliable members. However, the pastor had gone on to tell her that while it appeared that she enjoyed being an usher, unfortunately, he was concerned that she didn't love the members. Her actions seemed to resemble duty and order more than love and affection, which was not what was best for the congregation.

Nothing can replace our love for others. Working on their behalf is fine, but it is meaningless unless our work is motivated by love. In today's lesson, we will see how Christian love is essential to effective ministry.

Keep in Mind

"And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity."
(1 Corinthians 13:13, KJV)

Focal Verses

KJV Hebrews 13:1 Let brotherly love continue.

2 Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby some have entertained angels unawares.

3 Remember them that are in bonds, as bound with them; and them which suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body.

1 Corinthians 13:1 Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.

2 And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.

3 And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.

4 Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up,

5 Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;

6 Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth;

7 Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

8 Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.

9 For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.

10 But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.

13 And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

The People, Places, and Times

Corinth. Located in southern Greece, about 50 miles from Athens, the Corinth of the ancient world was actually a city that had been destroyed by Rome in 146 B.C., and then rebuilt by the emperor, Julius Caesar in 46-45 B.C. A Roman colony, Corinth was the capital of the province of Achaia.

Corinth was socially, culturally, and religiously diverse. In fact, in 49 A.D. a good number of Jews who were expelled from Rome resettled in Corinth. The Christians of Corinth reflected the diversity of the city. Congregations included the wealthy, merchants, enslaved individuals, and those who were formerly enslaved.

Corinth was home to numerous temples dedicated to pagan gods and goddesses including

Apollo, Hermes, Isis, Poseidon, and the Pantheon, which is a temple dedicated to all of the gods. When Paul arrived in Corinth (about 50 A.D.) the city's reputation for immorality was widely recognized. The infamous temple of Aphrodite had fallen into ruins but was home to hundreds of "temple prostitutes," making it popular with the numerous sailors visiting the city. The Greek word korinthiazesthai, which means to live like a Corinthian, meant that one lived immorally.

Background

In Paul's letter to the believers in Corinth, we see the challenges that faced the early church. Corinth was a large metropolis with a diverse population. The house churches that the Corinthian Christians worshiped in reflected the city's diversity. One issue Paul addressed to the Corinthians was unity among themselves, emphasizing the importance of their relationships with one another.

In Depth

1. A Plea for Brotherly Love (Hebrews 13:1–3)

The Scripture opens with “Let brotherly love continue.” Our world is full of hurting people, who in turn only know how to hurt other people. As a result, our newspapers and online and TV news reports are full of stories detailing terrible murders and horrific assaults committed by and on people in every age group. Thank God that believers who have found forgiveness through the blood of Jesus Christ have a new and divine nature. Because of Christ's forgiveness, we are capable of loving others in a deeper and more spiritual way. We are now capable of loving the way that God loves us. However, this capacity to love one another must be exercised. Each day, we have to plead as Jesus did, “nevertheless not as I will, but as thou wilt” (see Matthew 26:39). It is our love for God that must be the source of our love for others.

We want to remember that verse 1 is not a request nor a mere suggestion. This reminds us that there is a possibility for our love for one another to stop. Two possible reasons are failure to ask for forgiveness when we sin and refusing to forgive someone who hurts us. In His Sermon on the Mount, Jesus taught us to ask God to “forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors” (Matthew 6:12).

Hebrews 13:3 hearkens to customs of the Ancient Near East. In that time, people traveled great distances on foot. It was a common practice for a family to provide a meal and night's lodging to traveling strangers. Our world is very different today, and the expectation to open one's doors to a stranger hardly seems reasonable. We can, however, ask God to provide us with opportunities to assist strangers and share with them. Hospitality is a hallmark of Christianity. We want to show the same grace and kindness toward strangers that God has shown toward us. Jesus taught that, “Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me” (Matthew 25:40).

Hebrews 13:3 offers yet another motivation for our Christian hospitality. The Scripture says that in doing this, we might be visited by an angel. The Old Testament has many accounts of people who were visited by angels of God. However, the word “angel” translated here means a “messenger” and not necessarily a divine creature. While a present-day angel may never actually visit most saints, God's human messengers will most certainly visit us when we express Christian hospitality.

2. Love is the Basis of Our Faith (1 Corinthians 13:1–3)

We want to remember that when Paul wrote this letter, he was keenly aware of the Corinthians' fascination with the gifts of the Spirit. They were attracted to knowledge, prophecy, and speaking in tongues. Paul is teaching that these gifts were meaningless without love. When Paul speaks of “charity” we should read that word as “love.” More importantly, we should know that Paul is speaking of a specific form of love. He is not talking about eros, or the sensuous or erotic form of love. Nor is Paul describing philia, which means “a brotherly affection or friendship.” Rather, Paul is describing agape, “a commitment of the will to cherish and uphold another person.” In the Bible, this is the form of love that is always used when we describe God’s love. Agape describes our willful and deliberate decision to treat others with the utmost care and concern and allows us to esteem the best interests of our brother or sister above our own.

We must remember that this form of love is only possible when we love God first. Without this, the love toward one another is a sham, a mere imitation. This prerequisite is demonstrated in the Scripture when we read that there are two great commandments. The first is, “Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength.” The second is, “Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself” (Matthew 22:37, 39; Mark 12:30–31; Luke 10:27).

When Paul speaks of “tongues of men and angels,” he is not primarily describing glossolalia, or speaking in tongues. Rather, he is saying that it is more important to act lovingly than to be able to speak all the languages of heaven or earth. That definitely includes the conduct of those who practiced glossolalia. Without love, Paul is saying, the ability to communicate is useless. Similarly, Paul tells us that if he was able to explain all the mysteries of the Scriptures, but he wasn’t a loving person, it would be meaningless.

3. Love is the Proof of Our Gifts (vv. 4–7)

Contrary to what many of us believe, love is not an ethereal (heavenly) notion. Love is practical and must be put into practice on a daily basis. Christians must constantly measure their love and ask themselves, “Did I show love in that situation or toward that person?” And, more importantly, “Am I growing?” Paul shows that love can indeed be measured and that love results in characteristics that can be seen and heard.

4. Love is Permanent (vv. 8–13)

True love will produce patience, kindness, and honesty. As Christians, we have to identify and remove things from our lives that prohibit us from being able to manifest these qualities of love. Paul identifies these hindrances as jealousy, boastfulness, resentment, and ill temperament. He understood that when Jesus returned, sin and death would end. He knew that the gifts of the Spirit would no longer be needed. Paul uses two analogies to support this. First, it would be unimaginable to think that a mature adult would resort to childlike behavior. Secondly, an actual portrayal of a person could never be obtained by looking at a reflection of poor quality. Paul was teaching the Corinthians and us that when Christ returns, Christians would have direct access to Him. Our relationship with Him will be personal and intimate. Paul was trying to dispel the Corinthians’ pride in temporary supernatural gifts. Much of Paul’s ministry had been spent teaching about the importance of faith and hope. Now, he places love right alongside them, and in fact, elevates love above the others.

Search the Scriptures

1. According to Paul, what is necessary for any service or ministry to be of value (1 Corinthians 13:3)?
2. After our spiritual gifts cease to exist, what will remain (v. 13)?

Discuss the Meaning

If all spiritual gifts are predicated on love, why do some workers within the churches seem to believe or behave as though it is not essential to Christian ministry efforts?

Liberating Lesson

Paul makes it clear that for the believer, love is the key. It is love that enables us to reproduce the very character of Jesus Christ in our lives and in our ministry efforts. It is only when we have love that we can access the other fruit of the Spirit. Without love, we cannot genuinely be patient, peaceful, good, gentle, or display any of the other qualities. We may be able to imitate them, but without love, they won't be a part of our character; nor will we be able to fully embrace them in order to do the Kingdom-building work Christ has commissioned us to do.

Application for Activation

We are often frustrated in our work in churches. Sometimes it feels as though others are not as committed as we are. Over the next week, pray and ask God to reveal to you areas where you may have failed to demonstrate love toward your co-laborers. Then, ask God what you can do to remedy the situation. Also, ask Him how to show love to those who don't show it to you. It may call for you to make apologies and seek forgiveness and forgive others.

Stephen's Arrest and Speech

Bible Background • ACTS 6:8–7:53

Printed Text • ACTS 6:8–7:2A | Devotional Reading • PROVERBS 8:1–11

Aim for Change

By the end of the lesson, we will: DISCUSS the stand that Stephen took as a response to his faith; FEEL motivated to confront principalities and powers of our day; and SEEK the power and wisdom of the Spirit in our efforts to speak truth.

In Focus

Cleveland volunteered at the city-run homeless shelter. He was a hard worker with a cheerful attitude. Ms. Martin, the supervisor, was very happy with Cleveland's participation, especially because she seemed short of volunteers.

One day, she overheard Cleveland telling Jesse, a man living at the shelter, that the reason for his joy was Jesus. Jesse asked him how he could get this "Jesus joy."

So Cleveland explained, "First, we tell Jesus that we are sorry for our sins. Then we thank Him for dying on the cross to take the punishment for our sins. And lastly, we ask Jesus to save us." Right then and there, Cleveland and Jesse bowed their heads, and Jesse asked Jesus to save him.

Now Cleveland's joy was so great, he felt like he could walk on air. But just as he was going back to clean up food that a child had dropped, Ms. Martin came up to him with anger written all over her face.

"Cleveland, this is a government-sponsored facility so you cannot come here and talk about your religion!"

How do you think Cleveland will respond to Ms. Martin? What will he say? Have you ever had someone challenge your Christian witness?

Today we will see how Stephen was able to witness with great power and grace.

Keep in Mind

"And Stephen, full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people."
(Acts 6:8, KJV)

Focal Verses

KJV Acts 6:8 And Stephen, full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people.

9 Then there arose certain of the synagogue, which is called the synagogue of the Libertines, and Cyrenians, and Alexandrians, and of them of Cilicia and of Asia, disputing with Stephen.

10 And they were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spake.

11 Then they suborned men, which said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses, and against God.

12 And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, and caught him, and brought him to the council,

13 And set up false witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speak blasphemous words against this holy place, and the law:

14 For we have heard him say, that this Jesus of Nazareth shall destroy this place, and shall change the customs which Moses delivered us.

15 And all that sat in the council, looking stedfastly on him, saw his face as it had been the face of an angel.

7:1 Then said the high priest, Are these things so?

2a And he said, Men, brethren, and fathers, hearken;

The People, Places, and Times

Synagogue of the Libertines (Freedmen). Jews who were born in the Holy Land and spent most of their lives there spoke Aramaic, which was a form of the ancient Hebrew in which our Old Testament is written. But there were other Jews born in other places who had returned to Palestine, and they did not know Aramaic or Hebrew. They only spoke Greek, which was the language of the educated people of the day. Perhaps they had been slaves in other countries, but now they were all proud to be free people. Some of them came from Cyrene, an important city located in what is modern-day Libya in northern Africa. Others came from Alexandria, the chief city of Egypt, and others came from Cilicia and Asia. Ephesus was a grand city located in Asia Minor. Tarsus, where Paul was born, was located in the northern part of Asia Minor in what is now known as Syria.

Pious Greek-speaking Jews attended the Synagogue of Libertines or Freedmen. Paul would have attended this synagogue, and Barnabas probably did also. Among all these Greek-speaking Jews were a few Christians, but the most outspoken was Stephen. The Holy Spirit spoke through him as he reasoned, discussed, and argued for Jesus Christ.

Background

At the beginning of Acts 6, the early Christians were having problems. The Aramaic-speaking Jews were probably attending the big Temple in Jerusalem. But the early Jewish Christians, who spoke Greek, were attending the Synagogue of the Freedmen. The Jews had the wonderful custom of collecting donations for the poor among them; thus, the early Christians followed this custom and gave to needy widows. (Widows in those days had few ways to raise money to feed themselves, much less their children if they had any.)

The apostles were among the Aramaic Jews and were the early Christian leaders. They were in charge of the distribution of gifts to the widows, yet they were forgetting the Greek-speaking Christian widows. This could have been because of snobbery, because of language differences or because they just overlooked the Greek-speaking poor.

The godly solution of the apostles was to appoint Greek-speaking Jewish Christians to take charge of distributing food and money to the widows and other poor among them. The Greek-speaking Christians would know who was in need. The seven men chosen for this task were also chosen for their outstanding spirituality. Among them were Philip and Stephen, who is the focus of today's lesson.

At-A-Glance

1. Introduction of Stephen (Acts 6:8–10)
2. Opposition to Stephen (vv. 11–14)
3. Stephen's Effect on the Sanhedrin (vv. 15–7:2a)

In Depth

1. Introduction of Stephen (Acts 6:8–10)

Stephen did much more than hand out gifts to the needy. Until this time, Scripture had only mentioned the apostles performing miracles, but now we see Stephen doing great wonders. (We'll read later of the miracles that Philip performed). Scripture tells us the reason for Stephen's ability to perform miracles is that he is full of grace and power. We would expect to hear about the power in conjunction with miracles, but maybe we are surprised by the accompaniment of grace. Grace is always an unmerited gift of God. Therefore, we see that God working through Stephen, not because Stephen is so wonderful, but because God is wonderful and empowered him to do these amazing things.

At this time, all Christians were converted Jews and all attended synagogues. The Christian Jews were a tiny minority among the other Jews. The Jews whose primary language was Greek attended the Synagogue of the Freedmen. As Stephen, who attended this synagogue, performed miracles in the name of Jesus, other Jewish members who did not follow Christ opposed. They debated with Stephen, but their arguments did not stand up against him for two reasons. First of all, the Holy Spirit was enabling him to use great wisdom. Secondly, the things that Stephen said concerning Jesus Christ were true.

2. Opposition to Stephen (vv. 11–14)

Those who opposed Stephen thought they were defending things that good Jews believed, but they were probably jealous of him as well. Obviously, Stephen garnered a lot of attention from the miracles he performed and his brilliant exposition of the true meaning of Old Testament Scriptures.

Opposition spread from the Synagogue of the Freedmen to the great temple in Jerusalem and to the influential Jews who had also opposed Jesus. As a result, they seized Stephen and brought him before the great Jewish religious council, the Sanhedrin. This was the same religious council that put Jesus on trial. As they had with Jesus, they also brought false witnesses against Stephen and used some of the same arguments.

They accused Stephen of speaking against the Temple in Jerusalem. They said the Jesus he preached about had threatened to destroy the Temple. In John 2:19, Jesus said that if they destroyed "this temple," meaning His body, He would raise it again in three days. We know that they were twisting the words of both Jesus and Stephen without really trying to understand the message.

In addition, they accused both Stephen and Jesus of trying to destroy the Old Testament Law, again twisting their words. Jesus said He came not to abolish the Law but to fulfill it (Matthew 5:17). And because they were accusing Stephen of speaking about the Temple and the Law, they were in essence accusing him of speaking against God.

3. Stephen's Effect on the Sanhedrin (vv. 15–7:2a)

When Stephen's accusers finished what they had to say, they noticed his face looked like that of an angel. We are sure this does not mean he resembled the childlike pictures of angels we often see portrayed nor is it likely that he looked like some type of avenging angel. But because we have never looked into the face of an angel, we can only imagine a face that reflected the holiness of God Himself.

At that point, the high priest asked Stephen whether the charges of his accusers were true. This was probably Caiaphas, the very same man who had presided over the trial of Jesus. But that did not scare Stephen, who then launched into a history of the Jewish people, including their rejection of the prophets that God sent and finally the crucifixion of their Savior. The result of Stephen's sermon was that he was stoned and received by Jesus into heaven.

Search the Scriptures

1. How did Stephen communicate the Gospel to people (Acts 6:8–10)?
2. What did the false witnesses testify that Stephen said (v. 14)?
3. As the council looked upon Stephen's face, what did they see (v. 15)?

Discuss the Meaning

1. Stephen was mighty in both miracles and words. Do you think you must have these abilities to witness to others about Jesus Christ? What are the characteristics we need to witness effectively concerning Jesus?
2. Stephen had wonderful spiritual gifts and he was very proactive in using them, yet it seemed he had a short time on earth before he died. Why do you think God would allow him to be sacrificed after such a brief time as a Christian? Acts 8:1 tells us that Saul was watching all this. Do you think Stephen's martyrdom had any influence on Saul?

What other things happened as a result of Stephen's death? Acts 8:1 reveals one of those things.

Liberating Lesson

In the days of Stephen, Jewish society was very religious. Christians retained some of the good things from the religious Jews, such as collecting contributions for the poor, and thus the Christians made regular gifts to the widows, the most vulnerable in their society. Unlike the context of Stephen's ministry, our society today is continuing to become increasingly secular. But even though the people of Stephen's day were very religious, they were extremely hostile to the Good News of Jesus Christ. In our society, people are seemingly becoming more hostile to the Jesus of the Bible. What are some of the things that evoke hostility to the Christian message today? How do these things compare to the type of hostility in Stephen's day? What are some ways we can reverse this trend? Stephen, the other deacons, and the apostles demonstrated the love of Christ in the things they did for the poor. How can similar programs help prepare the way for our Christian witness?

Application for Activation

What are some situations when you think you could be a witness to the message of Jesus Christ? What are some of the things keeping you from speaking out? Ask God to empower you to tell people about our Lord. Ask Him to give you wisdom for the things to say and do. Before you speak up for Christ, demonstrate your love for others in the things you do.
