

USE WITH LESSON
10

I Believe

Paul was confident in what he believed about Christ. What do you believe? Write your statement of faith and testimony in the heart below.

USE WITH LESSON
11

Hold On

What words or phrases can you think of that describe what you can do to remain calm and confident during life's storms? Write the words on the broken pieces on the shore.

A rectangular wooden frame with a light brown border and a white interior. A thin black horizontal line is drawn across the middle of the white space, intended for writing.A rectangular wooden frame with a light brown border and a white interior. A thin black horizontal line is drawn across the middle of the white space, intended for writing.A rectangular wooden frame with a light brown border and a white interior. A thin black horizontal line is drawn across the middle of the white space, intended for writing.A rectangular wooden frame with a light brown border and a white interior. A thin black horizontal line is drawn across the middle of the white space, intended for writing.A long, narrow wooden frame with a light brown border and a white interior. A thin black horizontal line is drawn across the middle of the white space, intended for writing.A long, narrow wooden frame with a light brown border and a white interior. A thin black horizontal line is drawn across the middle of the white space, intended for writing.