Stephanie saw Bonnie, the hamster, when she came into the classroom. The class hamster had gotten loose. Stephanie caught Bonnie and put her back in the cage. She made sure the cage was closed tight.

The teacher came in with a stern look. "That cage is off limits. You're going to see the principal."

"I was helping you," said Stephanie.

The teacher didn't believe her. Stephanie told the principal the truth, but the principal didn't believe her either. Stephanie got in trouble, but she knew she had done the right thing.

LESSON 10 • NOVEMBER 6, 2022

"I am not insane, most excellent Festus," Paul replied. "What I am saying is true and reasonable" (Acts 26:25, NIV).

Stand Up!

Paul was in trouble. He hadn't done anything wrong. Some people didn't want him to talk about Jesus. Paul had to do what God told him to do. He told King Agrippa about the places he visited. He told the king about the people he told to repent. The people who didn't like Jesus threw Paul in jail.

He told King Agrippa about the places he visited and the people he told to repent. God had helped Paul, so Paul testified about God. "I'm telling the truth," Paul said. Paul had already gone through several trials. During his trials, Paul had to stand before everyone who accused him of doing bad things.

King Agrippa knew that Paul was trying to get him to believe in God. "Paul hasn't done anything wrong," the king confessed. He wanted to let Paul go free, but Paul wanted to see Caesar for another trial.

UMI MISSION STATEMENT

We are called of God to create, produce, and distribute quality Christian education products; to deliver exemplary customer service; and to provide quality Christian educational services, which will empower God's people, especially within the Black community, to evangelize, disciple, and equip people for serving Christ, His kingdom, and church.

DEAR PARENTS

Your child learned today that Paul stood up for what he believed in. You can talk with your child about what it means to do the right thing. Your child also wrote the name of someone they can tell about Jesus. You can pray with them and help them share the Good News!

ABCs of Salvation

Paul spoke out about Jesus before the king. We need to tell others about Jesus' love, even if it is difficult to do. Fill in the blanks with the words from the word bank, then color in the letters. Next, write the name of someone you can tell about Jesus this week!

PRIMARY LIFE APPLICATION STORY

Shayla and her mom were in an elevator with some other people. The elevator hummed and went up. Shayla watched the lit number panel. Then there was a weird sound. The elevator shook and a bell kept ringing. The elevator suddenly went downward quickly!

“Mommy, I’m scared!”

Mom held Shayla and prayed, “Jesus, help us!” A man pressed a red button for help.

They heard a voice over the elevator speaker.

“Everything will be OK. We had a minor problem, but it’s fixed.” The elevator door opened.

Shayla’s mom hugged her and said, “Sometimes bad things happen, but we can always know that God is with us, and He can give us peace even in bad and scary times.”

LESSON 11 • NOVEMBER 13, 2022

"The rest were to get there on planks or on pieces of the ship. In this way everyone reached land safely" (Acts 27:44, NIV).

Paul and the Stormy Sea

Paul and some other prisoners had to sail to Italy. A centurion, or officer, needed to make sure that they arrived to stand trial before Caesar, the Roman emperor. They sailed for many days through bad weather without eating.

There was a storm, and darkness was all around. Paul told the men that no one on the ship would die. He told the men to eat to keep up their strength. He took bread and blessed it and they ate. Afterward, the sailors threw things overboard to lighten the weight of the ship.

Still a mighty storm rocked the ship. The men were terrified of dying. The ship hit a sandbank and was wrecked. The centurion said that the men who were able should swim to the beach. The rest of the men grabbed pieces of the wrecked ship and floated to the land. The ship was destroyed, but everyone reached land safely.

Memory Verse:

"But whoever listens to me will live in safety and be at ease, without fear of harm"
(Proverbs 1:33, NIV).

DEAR PARENTS

Your child learned today that God was with Paul during a dangerous storm. This week, you can talk with your child about how God is with us in the difficult things, how we can pray for peace, and how we can trust in Him to always bring good out of bad situations.

No One Was Lost

Draw a circle around the hidden items and then color the picture. Find a rope, a centurion's helmet, a sword, armor, a map, a cloud, a small ship, a fish, a compass, an oar, a spear, a bolt of lightning, and an anchor. Then, write about a situation in which you need to place your trust in God.

What situation are you experiencing where you need to place your trust in God?
