PRIMARY LIFE APPLICATION STORY

“Class,” said Miss Wright, “this is Annie. She is new to our school. Her family just moved to this city. Let’s all help her as she adjusts to our school.”

Annie looked shyly around the room. She sat down slowly on the carpet for the morning meeting.

“I’ll bet she can’t speak English,” whispered Danny.

Mattie remembered how she had felt on the first day of school. She decided to be Annie’s friend and to help her understand what to do at school.

LESSON 12 • NOVEMBER 20, 2022

“Paul went in to see [Publius’ father] and, after prayer, placed his hands on him and healed him”? (from Acts 28:8, NIV).

Paul’s Prayer of Healing

After surviving a shipwreck, Paul and the other travelers arrived safely on an island. People on the island were very kind to them and built a fire so they could get warm. When Paul was picking up wood, a poisonous snake called a viper bit his hand. He shook it off into the fire and was fine. The people were amazed that Paul was not hurt.

Paul stayed at the home of the chief of the island. His father was sick. Paul placed his hands on the sick man, prayed for him, and he was healed. After that, many sick people on the island came to Paul and were healed. When it was time for Paul and the other men to sail again, the islanders gave them what they needed for their trip.

They were thankful for Paul and the other men.

PRIMARY LIFE APPLICATION STORY

Tyson was eating supper with his family.

“What did you do today in school?” asked Dad.

“Mostly work. But at lunchtime I told my friends about church. And I told them how I decided to follow Jesus and let Him guide my life.”

“What did they think?” asked Dad.

“Well, Janine wanted to follow Jesus, too. She was excited. But Tony and Zack laughed. They didn’t think it was cool.”

“Well, we know it’s wonderful, don’t we?” said Dad.

“Yeah,” said Tyson, smiling, as he grabbed more bread.

LESSON 13 • NOVEMBER 27, 2022

"Therefore, I want you to know that God's salvation has been sent to the Gentiles, and they will listen!" (Acts 28:28, NIV).

Share the News

Many people came to hear Paul preach. He was under arrest at a house, with Roman soldiers watching him. He explained the kingdom of God to them from morning until evening. He tried to convince them to believe in Jesus from the Law of Moses and from the words of the prophets.

Some were convinced by what he said. Others weren't. They disagreed with each other. They started to leave when Paul told them something Isaiah the prophet had said about many of God's people—the Jewish people—a long time ago. Paul said that they would hear but not understand; they would see but not perceive or really comprehend; their hearts were calloused, not soft to God's words; and their eyes were closed, they were stubborn—otherwise they might see and understand and turn to God.

So, God would send His salvation to the Gentiles (anyone who wasn't a Jew) and they would listen and believe. For two years, Paul stayed and taught about Jesus.

Tongue Twisters

See how fast you can say each of these tongue twisters. Then draw a picture that portrays one of the statements.

1. Paul in prison preached about the Lord.
2. Many people murmured many things.
3. Disbelieving people doubted and departed.
4. Some certainly and surely were convinced!

A large, empty rectangular box with a pink border, intended for drawing a picture that portrays one of the tongue twisters.

Memory Verse:

"My mouth will tell of your righteous deeds, of your saving acts all day long"
(from Psalm 71:15, NIV).

DEAR PARENTS

Your child learned today about Paul sharing the love of Jesus while he was imprisoned. This week, you and your child can invite someone to join you at church!

Prison Preaching

Read the Memory Verse. Then find and circle the words from the Memory Verse in this word search. Who can you invite to church this week? Write their name.
