PRIMARY LIFE APPLICATION STORY

Alicia lives next door to me. And Keiko is from Japan. My friend, Marco, lives across the street. And Ali is from Iran.

Jena's house is really big. She has lots and lots of friends.

My friend Sam doesn't have a lot. Most of the time, only Derrick and I play or share with him.

It is easy to be nice to kids in school. Especially when they look and talk like me. But God wants me to remember His rule: Be kind to everybody!

LESSON 3 • SEPTEMBER 17, 2023

"The foreigner residing among you must be treated as your native-born. Love them as yourself, for you were foreigners in Egypt. I am the LORD your God" (Leviticus 19:34, NIV).

Act it Out

God said, "I am the LORD." People should see His love in us. God teaches us important rules. He says: Do not lie and trick people. Do not steal or cheat. We must be fair.

Sometimes we have more than we need. We should share with those who have less than us. We must never spread lies about people.

God wants us to be safe and to protect our neighbors.

When someone is mean to us, we should not be mean back to him or her. We must forgive them. Finally, God wants us to be kind to our neighbors. God's rules are good rules.

UMI MISSION STATEMENT

We are called of God to create, produce, and distribute quality Christian education products; to deliver exemplary customer service; and to provide quality Christian educational services, which will empower God's people, especially within the Black community, to evangelize, disciple, and equip people for serving Christ, His kingdom, and church.

PRIMARY LIFE APPLICATION STORY

Rosa's friends wanted to jump rope. They needed more people to play. They did not think about Rosa. She could not walk. Rosa was in a wheelchair.

Rosa heard her friends. "I like rope," Rosa thought. "I think I can play."

"Let me play," said Rosa.

"How will you play?" asked her friends. They looked at her wheelchair.

"I will turn for you," Rosa said. "My hands are fine!"

Her friends were happy. They thanked Rosa for turning. Rosa was happy, too. She got to play jump rope!

LESSON 4 • SEPTEMBER 24, 2023

“The rabble with them began to crave other food, and again the Israelites started wailing and said, ‘If only we had meat to eat! We remember the fish we ate in Egypt at no cost—also the cucumbers, melons, leeks, onions and garlic. But now we have lost our appetite; we never see anything but this manna!’” (Numbers 11:4–6, NIV).

Don’t Grumble!

God brought the Israelites out of Egypt. God always blessed the people. But the Israelites were not happy. They started to mumble. They started to grumble. They complained all the time.

“We don’t want to eat God’s food. We want onions like we had in Egypt. We want fish like we had in Egypt. We want our old food again.”

This made God angry! It made Moses angry, too. God told Moses to get others to help with the grumbling people. They had forgotten God’s blessings.

Verse:

*"Bless the LORD, O my soul"
 (from Psalm 103:2, KJV).*

DEAR PARENTS

Your child learned not to grumble but to show gratitude to God and others. Ask your child about ways they can show gratitude.

Attitude of Gratitude

Israel complained to God about the food. Tell them how they could have had an attitude of gratitude.

Rosa was in a wheelchair but she was not angry. She did not complain. Write Rosa a note to tell how she showed an attitude of gratitude.

Now write about one thing you can do to show your attitude of gratitude for what God and others have done for you!
